GETTING STARTED

Whatever the occasion, we are here to help you choose the right trip and give you an experience you'll never forget!

First is first, INFORM YOURSELF AND YOUR GROUP:

We feel that it is important to get to know us before you take your idea on whitewater rafting the rest of your group. Wilderness Aware Rafting has always been dedicated to providing the absolute best when it comes to customer service and experience. You can expect first-class service from your first phone call to choosing your trip and making your reservation until the guide sees you off at the end of your adventure. HOW DO I ORGANIZE A GROUP?

- 1) Plan Ahead. Are folks interested in a short ½-day tour, full day with lunch, or a multi-day trip? If you are planning a rafting trip, are they interested in exciting whitewater, a calm scenic trip, or a multi-day wilderness trip? What is my groups' skill level? Give us a call! We can help answer questions and discuss which one of our many trip options will suit your group best. You can also visit our website at www.inaraft.com for information on our different trips.
- 2) Make an estimate of the number of people interested in joining you. Take a quick head count on the maximum number of people in your group. Remember, on half and full day trips – every 14th person is FREE!
- 3) Pick a date for your outdoor adventure and confirm it with us. Give us a quick call at 800.462.7238 and let us know what day you are considering for your trip. We will let you know if it is available. If so, we can make a tentative reservation to ensure you have the spots held for your group. Depending on how far in advance you book will determine your due date on making your deposit.
- 4) Get the word out about the upcoming trip. Make up some flyers to post around the office, or send a few emails to everyone and let them know about the trip and other important details regarding deadlines for signing-up and payment due dates.
- 5) Collect payment of have folks call us to make payment. If you are collecting payment from everyone, make sure you give them a deadline. When you are ready to pay, we require a 50% deposit. Do not pay the deposit yourself and hope that people will reimburse you. We will contact you 30 days prior to your trip to collect the balance. If folks are calling us directly with payment, we will either collect full payment or a 50% deposit. The remaining balance of 50% will automatically withdraw 30 days prior to the trip. Once payment is made, the group is subject to our cancellation policy.
- 6) Confirmation. We will email confirmation and pre-trip information to you. Pre-trip information can also be downloaded from our web site for individuals in your group. Pre-trip information covers what to wear, directions and departure times pertinent to your trip. A liability release (included with this packet) should be sent home with unaccompanied youths for parental permission.
- 7) Late Sign Up's. You can add participants on a space available basis up until the day before the trip.
- 8) Arrival. When the day of your trip finally arrives, help us keep your group organized by arriving a little early and connecting with everyone in your group. Once everyone is here, we will check you in as a group to ensure that everyone is getting consistent and accurate information about their trip.
